

Realising the Economic Potential of the Wider South East, 25 October 2019

Arup London offices, basement conference suite, 8 Fitzroy Street, London W1T 4BJ

Event programme

10.30-11.00	Coffee/badges
11.00-11.10	Chair's welcome & objectives for session – Alex Jan, Arup Welcome from Duncan Bowie on behalf of London & Wider South East strategic planning network, including genesis of symposium
11.10-11.35	Prof John Denham, Southern Policy Centre Q&A, inc Centre for London brief comments
11.35-11.50	Chris Tunnell, Arup Brief Q&A
11.50-12.10	Dame Kate Barker, Business Economist and NIC Member Q&A clarification points
12.10-12.20	Voting on key challenges facing the Wider South East
12.20-12.40	Plenary discussion
12.40-1.25	Lunch & networking
1.25-1.30	Chair's opening – Duncan Bowie
1.30-2.00	Tom Wright, Regional Plan Association New York - by videolink
2.00-2.30	3 speaker bursts (sub-regional): Catriona Riddell, Catriona Riddell Associates.  Hilary Chipping, Chief Executive South East Midlands LEP  Rupert Clubb, Chief Officer lead Transport for the South East.
2.30-2.50	Q&A and comments after sub-regional speakers
2.50-3.00	Tea & networking
3.00-3.30	Breakout discussions with facilitators on ways of bringing together strategic planning for infrastructure for the Wider South East including London, and practical measures that could be taken to co-ordinate research and intelligence throughout this wide area
3.30-3.55	Plenary – table feedback Panel discussion
3.55-4.00	Closing remarks Where next? Actions & outputs from the session
4.00 onwards	Refreshments & networking